2010 Show Season

(This copy precedes any other copies prior to (2-2-10))

TO ALL INSTRUCTORS FOR THE 2010 SHOW SEASON: PLEASE READ!!

All Instructors should be familiar with this rulebook. These rulebooks are available at every horse show. They are discussed at the annual riding instructors meeting held during the ASAC convention. It is your responsibility to read and understand the rulebook.

In addition to notifying you about rule changes and new restrictions, we felt it necessary to encourage you to practice a very important part of the Academy classes – ALL instructors are encouraged to have their stable own the academy/lesson horses. If this isn't possible, you are encouraged to lease the horse. If the horse is privately owned, this horse must be used for more lessons than for the said owner of the horse and be shown by other riders. Academy horses should NOT be in training. We ALL know the characteristics of a TRUE lesson horse.

Please note that ACADEMY ENTRIES ARE TO FOLLOW ALL HORSE SHOW ENTRY RULES. ANY ACADEMY CHANGES MUST BE MADE BY 5:00 PM ON FRIDAYS TO AVOID THE INDIVIDUAL HORSE SHOWS' PENALTIES. It is YOUR responsibility to be sure the show office has received your entries in advance.

A representative from UPHA Chapter 12 will be available to ensure the Academy session runs smoothly. If a problem or dispute arises, please contact this representative. The UPHA Chapter 12 Horse Show Representative's name will be posted in the show office. The UPHA Chapter 12 Horse Show Representative, UPHA Chapter 12 Officers, ASAC Board of Directors/Officers along with Horse Show Management have the authority to enforce the ASAC Academy rules.

 PLEASE BE AWARE THAT ASTM/ SEI HELMETS ARE REQUIRED FOR ALL 10 & UNDER RIDERS AND ARE ENCOURAGED FOR ALL RIDERS. 10 & UNDER RIDERS WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO SHOW WITHOUT A HELMET. *****

 In an effort to “practice what we preach,” please be aware that you are a role model for ASAC. Be aware of the IMAGE and IMPRESSION you portray to spectators, parents, bystanders, other riders and instructors. The excitement and tension of coaching our riders can run high, but please be aware of the IMAGE and IMPRESSION that DISTRACTING, EXCESSIVE, OR FOUL LANGUAGE AND/OR ACTIONS portray in the paddock and show ring! *****

While it may seem that we have strict rules in the Carolinas, our success can be attributed to instructors working together as a TEAM! Large participation in our Academy division is a result of our hard work and knowing what is expected of us.

Good Luck to everyone in the upcoming show season. With your help and cooperation, the show season should run smoothly and successfully. Let's make ASAC a role model for Academy!

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE ACADEMY DIVISION:

Academy classes are a very important part of the North and South Carolina horse industry. These classes should be judged with the same importance as any regularly judged show classes.

ENTRIES & SPLITS:

ACADEMY ENTRIES ARE TO FOLLOW ALL HORSE SHOW ENTRY RULES. ANY ACADEMY CHANGES MUST BE MADE BY 5:00 PM ON FRIDAY to avoid penalty. (ASAC BOD March 2003).

Since the Academy division is growing larger each year and many of these classes are split several times, we propose that the splits be better defined. This should prove to help instructors as well as management. We think there is a need to categorize riders according to skills and experience levels.

If there is a need to split classes, the management can split according to our predetermined "classifications." This will be very simple by adding an A, B or C in parenthesis by the rider's name on the entry blank. It is VERY important that you classify riders on the entry forms! On 8 & under riders, please list the child's age to assist if a 6 & under split is needed in addition to your classifications.

- (A) Advanced Riders. These riders' skills are more advanced than beginners or competitors.
- (B) Beginner Riders. "B" class is limited to three (3) horse show appearances. Winter Tournament experience does NOT count.
- (C) Competitor Riders. These riders' skills fall in between Advanced and Beginner riders.

Entries made without split information will automatically be placed in the advanced splits. Please bring enough horses to accommodate your riders without depending on split classes. Random switching of splits will result in disqualification!

PLEASE NOTE: Horse Show Management will try to split riders according to skill levels provided by the Instructors BUT many times the splits on the paddock sheets will not reflect our riders skill classification. Example: All beginner riders may be placed into the same split together but management may call this the "C" or "D" split.

Horse Show Managers

After much consideration, we are proposing a new Academy Class list. We hope this relieve some inconvenience our managers and office staff have experienced. We encourage you to hold the Academy division as one session in its entirety on Saturday Morning.

We would appreciate you using the list in the order with the names listed as stated. Please also use the information section in its entirety. Please use all classes specified on the list to eliminate splitting of classes. This will help you with your time schedule as well as ribbon orders!

Classes should have no more than 12 entries. Walk Trot 10 & under must have no more than 10 entries in each class. All 6 & under classes must have no more than 6 entries in each class (effective 5/1/03)

In an effort to make sure the Academy rules are clear to everyone, please see that the judge receives an Academy Rules and Handbook. We also ask that you hire a judge with an interest in Academy.

Please place the class description stickers on the judge's cards.

Please post the Academy Rules and Handbook in the horse show office for everyone to view.

Your UPHA Chapter 12 Horse Show Representative or ASAC Academy/Winter Tournament Committee Member can assist you with any questions.

WE understand that the academy division is an important part of the horse shows by providing new customers to our industry.

Thank you for your support of this program!

Labels for the judge's cards should read as follows:

Academy Equitation: To be judged on BASIC equitation skills with correct diagonals, canter leads and well-balanced form. Riders should convey impression of effective and easy control.

Academy Showmanship: Judged on the rider's showmanship and ring generalship abilities. Promptness in finding correct diagonals and leads to count 50%; rider's command of the horse (speed, placement, usage of the ring and collectiveness) should count 50%.

THE HORSE MUST NOT BE JUDGED!!

UPHA CHAPTER 12 HORSE SHOW REPRESENTATIVE

Please familiarize yourself with the Academy division rules. You MUST be available to watch these classes and assist the show manager and paddock manager. Your help is definitely needed!!

Please make sure the Academy Rules are posted in the Horse Show Office and that the judge is familiar with ASAC rules.

Please remember the purpose of this division is three-fold:

1. To encourage participation in our lesson programs.
2. To introduce potential owners to the joys of showing horses in a fun atmosphere.
3. To give our riders an opportunity to gain show ring experience and perfect their riding skills.

Academy horses may cross-enter into the equitation divisions at any show; however, equitation horses may not be entered into the Academy division. Horses CANNOT show in the Academy division and be cross-entered into the performance division at the SAME SHOW (Exceptions: Lead line, costume, ride-a-buck).

Please encourage Instructors to be aware of the IMAGE and IMPRESSION they portray to spectators, parents, bystanders, other riders and instructors. Remind them that they are professionals. Distracting, excessive, foul language OR actions will NOT be allowed.

If there are arguments or complaints about the rules, remind them that these are the rules for this year as sanctioned by ASAC, the governing body for the Academy Division in North and South Carolina. Everyone must abide by these rules!

While rules may be different in other states, horses from programs outside of the Carolinas MUST abide by these rules at ASAC sanctioned shows in North or South Carolina.

Anyone not abiding by these rules, or horses deemed to be a danger, will be eliminated by the authority of Horse Show Management, UPHA Chapter 12 Representative/Officers or ASAC Board/Officers.
