

ASAC SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Eddie Case Memorial Scholarship

Dear Scholarship Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in the American Saddlebred Association of the Carolinas Eddie Case Memorial Scholarship Program.

The Scholarship Committee congratulates you on your achievements thus far and is pleased that you have requested a scholarship application. Please read and follow the application procedure carefully and completely. Enclosed are the application, instructions and reference forms.

The completed application and supplemental documentation are due no later than January 20th. Letters of reference are also due January 20th.

Criteria for winning

This award honors one youth, 21 years of age and under, at grade 11 or higher, who has exhibited a sportsmanlike attitude throughout his or her involvement in ASAC. Nominees must be active ASAC members for at least five years who have demonstrated participation within the show ring, exhibited positive personal characteristics, academic success, as well as having served as true role models for their peers. Nominees should also demonstrate a need for the scholarship. An essay with a minimum of 1,000 words is to be submitted with the application using the above criteria.

Purpose of the award

This award was established to honor Eddie Case, who gave unselfishly of his time and talents as an ASAC Board Member and devoted volunteer. He was especially interested in young people and encouraged their involvement with the American Saddlebred, Hackneys, and Roadsters. There isn't enough time in the world to describe all the things that he has done for ASAC. Eddie Case was the consummate gentleman outside the show ring and a fierce competitor in the show ring. He had a booming voice and a kind heart. He could be seen at horse shows wearing many different hats, from announcing in center ring at some shows and managing the paddock at others. He served as ASAC auctioneer for many years. In addition to his horse show duties, he was seen in his racing silks sitting behind his beloved road horse and letting out a mighty roar as the announcer asks them to go at speed.

Selection

A committee comprised of the ASAC Executive Board, Youth Chair(s), Kathy Case, and Dan Shirley will review the applications. The award will be presented at the Annual ASAC Convention. The recipient of the award will be entitled to a $2,500 scholarship, which will be paid directly to the institution of his/her choice.

Best of luck to you! You are to be commended for your past accomplishments and we look forward to hearing of great successes in your future!

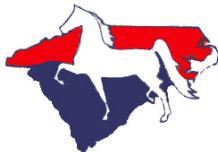

If you have any questions about the scholarship or the application procedure, please contact the Youth Chair at asacyouthscholarship@gmail.com.

Sincerely,

Chris Bishop
ASAC President
